

NOMINATION FOR ELECTION TO THE PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCIL

What is involved in being a PCC member?

1. Meet 8-9 times a year.
2. With others, have a collective overview of the life and growth of the church.
3. With others, have legal responsibility for the church budget.
4. As an individual member, be thoughtful and aware regarding the life of the church, especially those things which may be preventing growth and health, or which would encourage it.
5. As an individual member, bring things to the attention of the PCC that are either preventing church growth and health, or that would enhance it.
6. As an individual member, and with others, be prepared to take things forward that will help the church to grow
7. As an individual member, pray for the church both privately, and when you can, by joining in the church prayer meetings. The monthly church prayer diary is useful for this purpose.
8. As an individual member, review your financial support for the church. There is no obligation for PCC members to give a certain amount, but because we are responsible for the budget it's important that each member can say we give serious consideration to our own contribution.
9. With others, have legal responsibility for the church fulfilling its aims (ie promoting the gospel for the benefit of non-members) as a registered charity. ourselves agree with them.
